Aegion Corporation

AEGN – NASDAQ – Neutral-3

Miss in Q2'17 and another Round of Restructuring, but Forward Outlook Somewhat Resilient.

Investment Highlights

- AEGN reported Q2'17 adj. EPS of $0.33, up yr/yr from $0.23; nonetheless, results missed consensus for $0.41 and our less aggressive $0.36.
- Adjusted net income grew ~42% in Q2 on ~4% fewer shares outstanding. After repurchasing ~$20MM of stock in 1H, AEGN has about $20MM left on its authorization, which we expect to be used in 2017.
- Q2'17 revenue grew 19.1%, but conclusion of the Appomattox coating project in the quarter for the Corrosion Protection (CP) makes for a difficult comp in the year-ahead. CP sales grew 35.3%; Energy Services (ES) posted a +47.8% revenue print, while Infrastructure Solutions (IS) topline slid 1.3%.
- We calculate Q2'17 adjusted gross margin of 22.5%, up ~115bps yr/yr; Op Ex represented an adjusted 16.3% of revenue, down a few basis points yr/yr.
- June 30 backlog totaled $774.4MM, up 3.0% yr/yr but up 8.7% sequentially, on strength for the IS segment (sewer rehab) that bodes well for 2H'17.
- In conjunction with Q2 results, AEGN announced a restructuring plan, summarily to: A) exit non-pipe Fiberwrap contracting, B) divest Bayou assets in LA, and C) reduce support/field overhead for Corpro Canada. AEGN expects 2H'17 cash charges of $9-$11MM will drive 2018 cost savings of $15MM.
- Reflecting slight downside to our Q2, offset by strong commentary toward IS in 2H, our 2017E EPS is unchanged at $1.24; our 2018E EPS slips to $1.33.
- We are reiterating our Neutral rating. Valuation seems decent to us, but we prefer to let the stock digest the Q2 miss and recently announced corporate shifts.

ADDITIONAL DISCUSSION—FINAL THOUGHTS

Although it is a bit tiresome to see another round of corporate restructuring at AEGN, we believe this most recent announcement makes a lot of sense. Exiting the Bayou assets in Louisiana takes away any potential for future projects similar to Appomattox; however, this also removes upstream exposure, which in our view, is a strategy that seems to be working for the Energy Services segment. Similarly, exiting the non-pipe contracting market for Fyfe (think concrete structures) could bring a write down, but it better-focuses the company on executing for its core water/sewer customers, where AEGN has been successful for years.

SUITABILITY

We assign AEGN a suitability rating of ‘3.’ A complete description of our suitability scale is on page 5. Aegion’s relatively small size and exposure to large and/or growing end markets (pipelines; water infrastructure) play into our view toward above average risk/reward. A recent history of entering/exiting business, coupled with a level of cyclical to earnings and a modest debt load, help push the stock below our more conservative ‘2’ rating. A strong cash position, de-risked international profile, and a long history of implementing core CIPP services, keep AEGN well above our speculative/most aggressive ‘4’ rating.

CONSIDERATIONS AND RISKS

We believe Aegion’s sales are sensitive to macroeconomic conditions. As such, the company may experience difficulty due to trends that are both difficult to predict and beyond the company’s control. Additionally, the company is exposed to raw material and labor cost inflation. An inability to pass on higher input costs to customers may pressure margins, lower sales and/or decrease earnings.

Aegion has acquired numerous companies over the past decade, including the Q1’16 ~$90MM purchase of Underground Solutions, and may acquire additional companies in the future. Failure to effectively integrate acquisitions or overpayment for operating assets may result in write-downs, decreased financial flexibility and/or lower earnings. AEGN took material impairments to prior acquisitions in both 2014 and 2015.

AEGN is sensitive to municipal spending, particularly within Infrastructure Solutions. We view the muni customer as slow moving, difficult to influence and difficult to predict relative to private industry.

Aegion generates a significant portion of sales outside of the US, and at any given time can have assets deployed in dangerous and/or unpredictable regions of the globe. World-wide operations expose the company to political and forex risk, and present operational and execution challenges for management.

Aegion operates in a fragmented market against numerous competitors. Declining bidding activity could bring forth pricing pressure, while significant engineering breakthroughs by the company’s competition could have a negative impact on AEGN.

Aegion made a concerted effort to expand into the energy sector in the late-2000s and early-2010s. This exposure has proved somewhat problematic with the recent collapse in energy prices in recent years. We expect a significant portion of AEGN to remain sensitive to the volatile sector.

AEGN shares are predominately held by institutional investors, a fact that we believe makes the stock more susceptible to changes in market sentiment and non-fundamental technical factors. Furthermore, we expect slightly higher turnover could result in periods of significant short-term volatility.

Our Suitability rating is 3 on a 1-to-4 scale (1 = most conservative, 4 = most aggressive).
